4. The Petitioner is awarded parent-time with the parties' minor children for two continuous months each summer, beginning in the summer of 2025. Based on the children's current school schedule, the Petitioner's summer parent time shall begin on July 1st and end on September 1st of each year, beginning in 2025. If the children's school schedule changes, the Petitioner shall give the Respondent written notice of the two-month period during which he will exercise his uninterrupted summer parent time with the parties' children, at least 30 days in advance. The Petitioner shall provide all transportation necessary to facilitate his summer parent time with the parties' minor children.

5. The Petitioner is entitled to reasonable, regular Facetime visits with the parties' minor children. If the parties cannot otherwise agree on the date, time and frequency of the Petitioner's Facetime visits, such visits shall take place twice per week on Wednesday and Sunday, beginning at 5:00 p.m. MST. RELOCATION

8. If either party desires to relocate to a residence 150 miles or less from the residence of the other party, the party relocating shall give notice of such relocation in accordance with Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209. In the event of such a relocation, either party shall be allowed to file a petition to modify the Decree of Divorce, requesting the Court to modify the

Decree in accordance with Utah law, the facts related to such relocation/change of circumstance, and the best interests of the children.

PARENTING PLAN

Decision Making/Dispute Resolution

9. Each party shall have the right and authority to make minor day-to-day decisions without consultation with the other party while that party has physical custody of the parties' minor children.

10. In the event of a medical emergency involving one or more of the parties' minor children, the parent who has physical custody of the child at the time of the emergency may make emergency treatment decisions regarding the child. Each parent shall immediately notify the other parent regarding any medical emergency or illness.

11. The parties shall consult with one another and attempt to reach agreements on major issues concerning developmental, medical, dental and psychological health and treatment; education; religious and extracurricular activities of the parties' minor children. Any agreements made by the parties on these issues (including but not limited to agreements regarding providers, treatment and payment) shall be in writing signed by both parties (which could be signed by electronic signatures). If the parties cannot agree on a major issue they shall follow the procedures set forth in paragraph 12.

12. In the event of a dispute regarding the parenting of the parties' children, the parties agree to do the following:

a. Discuss the matters in good faith, which could include counseling or consulting with an agreed-upon third party and an attempt to reach a mutual agreement based on the best interests of the parties' minor child(ren). Any mutual agreement shall be reduced to a writing signed by both parties (which could be signed by electronic signatures).

b. If an agreement cannot be reached in a discussion between the parties, the Respondent shall have the right and obligation to make the final decision on the issue, subject to the right of the Petitioner to file a petition with the Court to contest the Respondent's decision on the issue upon which the parties could not agree.

c. If a petition contesting a decision is filed by the Petitioner, the Court shall stay all proceedings on the petition, until the parties have mediated in good faith in a further attempt to agree upon the issue.

d. If a dispute is resolved by judicial decision, the court may order the costs and attorney's fees of the prevailing party to be paid by the other party, according to the normal court procedures for awarding attorney's fees in a domestic proceeding.

Communication and Records

13. The parties shall communicate directly with each other via Talking Family Wizard or a similar media application (a free application shall be preferred to an application that charges a fee). The parties shall promptly respond to messages sent to or left for one another with regards to the parties' minor children. The parties' minor children shall not be used to relay messages between the parties. Unless ordered by the Court, or mutually agreed upon by the parties, the parties shall not use any third parties as messengers.

14. Both parties shall have equal and open access to the educational, medical, dental, psychological treatment, daycare, extracurricular, religious and government records of parties' minor children, and both parties shall be listed with such entities (schools, doctors, dentists and other medical providers, daycare providers, administrators or coaches of extracurricular activities, churches and government entities) as parties with full rights to have access to records and to be given notice of and to be able to participate in activities. Arrangements shall be made to ensure that all important school notices and report cards are sent to each parent, that each parent is placed on the school email lists, that each parent is made aware of and allowed to participate in parent/teacher conferences and other school activities, and that each parent's information is provided to administrators of extracurricular activities in order that each parent may receive notice of and participate in such activities. Both parties shall be able to directly request and shall be entitled to receive any medical, school, day care, and/or other child related records and communicate freely with the children's medical providers, teachers, daycare providers or other parties involved with the training, supervision, monitoring, custody, care, record-keeping or activities of the parties' minor children. The parties shall communicate and share information regarding the minor children's development, including school records, medical and dental treatment, psychological treatment, extra-curricular activities, sports, religious activities and other appropriate information with each other. Whereas the Petitioner has not been given access to the children's medical and school records since November of 2019, the Respondent shall provide copies of the children's medical and school records from December 1, 2019, until the present, which shall be provided to the Petitioner within 30 days of entry of the Decree of Divorce, to the extent that such records are still available to the Respondent.

15. The parties shall notify each other of any special events involving the minor children such as school activities, church events, sports events, graduations, etc., so that each party may have the option of attending the special event if possible. Each party shall have full rights to attend all doctor's/dentist's/medical provider's appointments, all parent/teacher conferences, all extracurricular activities, all church activities and all other significant events, even though the distance between the parties' residences may make doing so impractical in most instances.

16. The Petitioner shall be entitled to reasonable, regular Facetime visits with the parties' minor children in the manner set forth in paragraph 5 above.

17. When the parties' children are exercising summer parent time with the Petitioner, the Respondent shall be entitled to reasonable, regular Facetime visits with the parties' minor children in the manner set forth in paragraph 6 above.

18. The minor children shall be able to communicate with either parent by any reasonable means at any reasonable time the parties' minor children may choose. Neither party shall restrict communication between the minor children and the other parent unless the communication becomes disruptive or uncivil.

19. The parties shall keep each other informed as to their current residential address, home phone number, work phone number, cell phone number(s), email address(es), and any other contact information, including how to be contacted in the event of an emergency.

20. The parties shall be flexible in making reasonable allowances concerning the parenting plan as the needs and interests of the minor children may require.

21. The parties shall not involve the minor children in disputes or disagreements that may arise between the parties at any time or in any way.

22. Petitioner and Respondent shall treat each other with dignity and respect when in the presence of the parties' minor children. In addition, the parties shall refrain from calling anyone other than the parties listed herein, who are the parents of the child, "mom and/or dad," "father and/or mother," or any derivative thereof, in the presence of the children.

Parent-Time

23. Parent time shall be the parent time set forth in the paragraphs above.

24. Except to the extent that such Advisory Guidelines conflict with other provisions expressly stated herein, the parties shall adopt the Advisory Guidelines set forth in UCA §81-9-202 as part of the parties' parenting plan.

25. While the parties' minor children are with each party for parent-time, each party shall:

a. Promote a healthy and beneficial relationship between the parties' minor children and the other parent, and refrain from any conduct which could reasonably be construed as intended to influence the minor children's preference regarding custody or visitation, or which would tend to diminish the love and affection of the children for either parent.

b. Refrain from demeaning, criticizing or otherwise being disrespectful or undermining the authority of the other parent in the presence of the minor children, or allowing others to do so in the presence of the minor children—including an affirmative duty to either require the third-party to cease the prohibited conduct if possible, or remove the minor children from the presence of the third-party engaging in prohibited conduct.

c. Not allow the parties' minor children to be in the presence of anyone, including the parent, who is abusing drugs or alcohol.

d. Supply appropriate clothing and personal items for the parties' minor children, which will be the children's property and may return with the children.

e. Ensure that the parties' minor children attend regularly scheduled activities including but not limited to school functions, sports activities, religious services, and other extra-curricular activities.

f. Discuss with the other party any problems the party is experiencing with disciplining the children and work together to enforce similar discipline plans/goals at each home. The parties shall be the only parties allowed to discipline the children – no stepparents; significant others; nor other adults shall discipline the children. The parties shall not use corporal punishment to discipline the children nor shall they permit the use of corporal punishment on the children by any other person.

g. Only allow the parties to administer medicine to the children – no stepparents; significant others; nor other adults (except for medical professionals) shall be allowed to administer medicine to the children without the consent of both parties.

h. Introduce the children to or allow the children to be around a significant other of a party until the party has been dating such significant other at least 3 months (or until the party becomes married to such significant other, whichever occurs first). Neither party shall allow the child to be around a significant other of a party overnight until the party has been dating such significant other at least 6 months (or until the party becomes married to such significant other, whichever occurs first).

i. Adhere to all safety laws regarding the minor children.

j. Not allow the minor children to be around dogs or other pets unless they are hypoallergenic. The burden to prove an animal is hypoallergenic falls on the party introducing the animal into the children's life.

26. Special consideration shall be given by each party to make the parties' minor children available to attend family functions such as funerals, weddings, reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in either the lives of the children or either of the parties.

27. Parental care shall be presumed to be better care for the minor children than surrogate care and the parties shall cooperate in allowing the parent who is willing and personally available to provide childcare for the parties' minor children to do so. Childcare arrangements with nominal or no charge, such as with close family members, shall also be preferred.

28. In the event that surrogate care providers are used, each party shall provide all surrogate care providers with the name, current address, and telephone number of the other parent, and shall provide the other parent with the name, current address and telephone number of all surrogate care providers.

Changes to the Parenting Plan

29. Informal, temporary changes to the Parenting Plan may only be agreed upon by a writing between the parties, and shall not create a "course of dealing" between the parties for purposes of formally changing the parenting plan.

30. Formal changes to the Parenting Plan may only be made by a formal writing stipulating to formal changes to the Parenting Plan, which must be filed with and ratified by this Court; alternatively, formal changes to the Parenting Plan can be made by filing and litigating a petition to modify the Decree of Divorce.

Dispute Resolution

31. In the case of a dispute or disagreement between the parties concerning the Parenting Plan, which is related to issues other than "decision making" as set forth in this Agreement and the Parenting Plan, the parties agree to do the following:

a. Discuss the matters in good faith, which could include counseling or consulting with an agreed-upon third party and an attempt to reach a mutual agreement based on the best interests of the parties' minor child(ren). Any mutual agreement shall be reduced to a writing signed by both parties (which could include electronic signatures).

b. If an agreement cannot be reached in a discussion between the parties, the Respondent shall have the right and obligation to make the final decision on the issue, subject to the right of the Petitioner to file a petition with the Court to contest the Respondent's decision on the issue upon which the parties could not agree.

c. If a petition to contest a decision of the Respondent is filed by the Petitioner, the Court shall stay all proceedings on the petition, until the parties have mediated in good faith in a further attempt to agree upon the issue.

d. If a dispute is resolved by judicial decision, the court may order the costs and attorney's fees of the prevailing party to be paid by the other party, according to the normal court procedures for awarding attorney's fees in a domestic proceeding.

Miscellaneous

32. Any parental duties or rights not specifically addressed in this Parenting Plan shall be discussed and mutually decided by both parties. If the parties cannot come to a mutual agreement on such duties and rights not specifically addressed in this Parenting Plan, such issues shall be resolved in the manner set forth in paragraph 31 of the Parenting Plan.

33. This Parenting Plan is filed by the parties in good faith and the parties believe that the Parenting Plan is in the best interests of the parties' minor child.

CHILD SUPPORT

34. Child Support consistent with the Child Support Guidelines shall be awarded herein. Petitioner's monthly gross income is established to be $10,549.00 (based on 3-year average of his annual salary) and the Respondent's monthly gross income is imputed at the minimum wage amount of $1,257.00 per month. The monthly child support calculation based on those incomes to be paid by Petitioner is $2,130.00 per month, which calculates to be $492.00 per week, but the parties have agreed that the Petitioner would continue to pay child support in the amount of $500 per week, which is the amount he has paid since January of 2020. Petitioner shall pay the weekly child support to the Respondent by means of direct deposit into her bank account, as has been their course of dealing since their date of separation. This agreed upon order of child support is consistent with the Child Support Guidelines and the Worksheet, submitted herein. An Affidavit of Compliance with the Child Support Guidelines and the current applicable Child Support Worksheet shall be filed herewith. The parties have agreed there is no delinquent child support due to the Respondent by the Petitioner.

35. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann.§ 81-6-211, Petitioner's child support obligation shall be reduced by 50% for each 30-day time period during which the parties' children are with the Petitioner for at least 25 out of any 30 consecutive days for extended parent time, and/or shall be reduced by 25% for each 30-day time period during which the children are with the Petitioner for at least 12 out of any 30 consecutive days for extended parent time.

36. Either party may ask for an adjustment to be made to child support for the current year based upon the parties' incomes for the previous year, but must do so on or before February 15th of the current year.

CHILD CARE AND EDUCATIONAL/ACTIVITY COSTS/EXPENSES

37. Parental care shall be presumed to be better for the minor children than surrogate care and shall be the law of this case.

38. The parties shall equally share any out-of-pocket work-related or school-related childcare costs for their minor children. The parties shall also equally share any required educational costs for their minor children, including, but not limited to, tuition fees, class fees, school meal fees, and activity fees.

39. To the extent that the parties have mutually agreed upon a child's participation in a particular extracurricular activity in writing, the parties shall equally share the costs of such extracurricular activity 50/50 and both parties shall ensure that the parties' minor child is able to participate in such extracurricular activity to the extent possible, due to the extensive distance between the residences of the parties and the limited time period of the Petitioner's annual parent time. If both parties do not mutually agree upon a child's participation in a particular extracurricular activity, the party enrolling the child in such activity shall be required to pay 100% of the cost for such activity, and the other party shall not be required to ensure that the child is able to participate in such extracurricular activity. Both parties shall be able to fully participate in any extracurricular activities of the parties' minor children to the extent they are able to do so.

40. The party who incurs a child care expense, educational expense, or agreed-upon extracurricular activity expense shall provide to the other party written verification of the billing or proof of timely payment of such expense within 30 days of receipt of the billing or timely payment of the expense by the incurring party, whichever occurs later. A legible phone text or email photo of a bill is adequate if it fully discloses the charge and other relevant needed information, including but not limited to the name, address and contact information of the vendor. A party is not required to pay the full obligation before submitting the bill but is always obligated to pay their half of the obligation in a timely manner in order to avoid negatively affecting the credit of the other party. If written verification and request for payment of the expense is not sent to the other parent within 30 days of receipt of the billing or timely payment of the expense, whichever occurs later, the incurring party may not be entitled to reimbursement of the expense. The parent receiving verification of the expense shall pay to the incurring party or shall make arrangements to pay to the service provider, his or her one half portion of the expense within 30 days of receiving verification of the expense.

MEDICAL AND DENTAL INSURANCE AND COSTS

41. With regard to providing medical insurance and coverage of medical bills for the minor children, pursuant to 81-6-208, Utah Code Annotated, the following shall be ordered:

a. In the event either party currently has now, or in the future, medical insurance available to them through their places of employment or through some other source at a reasonable rate, whichever party is able to obtain the best quality medical insurance at the lowest cost shall be required to obtain such medical insurance for the benefit of the minor children of the parties, with the other party reimbursing the party obtaining the insurance in the manner set forth below. Health insurance shall include an obligation to carry dental insurance if it is available on the same basis.

b. The parties shall equally share any and all out of pocket costs for health insurance premiums paid for the benefit of the parties' minor children and shall equally share the costs of any and all non-covered medical expenses including insurance premiums, deductibles and co-payments. This shall include any treatment for mental illness.

c. A parent who incurs medical or dental expenses for the children shall be required to provide the other parent with written verification of payment or the incurring of medical and dental expenses to the other party within thirty (30) days of payment by the parent incurring the bill, or the date of payment by any insurance carrier with a balance remaining owed by the parents. Pursuant to 81-6-208(10)(d), Utah Code Annotated, a parent who fails to comply with this requirement may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of those expenses. The burden of proving that such proof of expenses has been provided shall be upon the parent making the claim for reimbursement.

d. Reimbursement by the obligor parent shall be made within thirty (30) days to the obligee parent.

e. With regard to contributions from either parent, neither parent shall be required to provide coverage, contributions or co-payments for any medical or dental procedure that is not reasonably necessary and/or is incurred primarily for cosmetic purposes without his or her express written consent.

f. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions, neither party shall be required to maintain health or dental insurance for the children if it is not available to them at a reasonably affordable rate.

g. The requirement for either parent to maintain health and dental insurance, and/or to pay any non-covered medical and dental expenses shall remain in effect for a child only as long as the child is of age that he would be entitled to receive child support.

h. The parent ordered to maintain insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent, and/or to the Office of Recovery Services (if required), upon initial enrollment of the dependent children, and thereafter on or before January 2 of each calendar year. The parent shall notify the other parent, or the Office of Recovery Services (if required), of any change of the insurance carrier, premium amount, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date that parent first knew or shall have known of the change.

i. Both parents shall be provided with copies of all mental health, dental and medical insurance policy information, including a duplicate insurance card, covering the parties' minor children.

DEPENDENCY EXEMPTIONS AND TAX FILINGS

42. The parties shall file separate tax returns, beginning with the 2020 tax year. The Petitioner shall be entitled to claim the tax deductions for all of the parties' children for each tax year in which the Respondent is not employed. If the Respondent becomes employed, and provides proof of employment to the Petitioner for any particular tax year, the parties shall each be entitled to claim the tax deductions for half of the parties' children for that tax year, and if there is an unequal number of children eligible for being claimed as a tax deduction, the parties shall alternate taking the tax deduction for the extra child (or the only child), with the Petitioner being entitled to claim the tax deduction for the extra child (or only child) for odd tax years and the Respondent being entitled to claim the tax deduction for the extra child (or only child) during even tax years.

DIVORCE EDUCATION COURSE

43. Both parties have completed the Divorce Orientation Course and the Divorce Education Course. The Respondent filed proof of completion of such classes with the Court on 09/28/200. The Petitioner filed proof of completion of such classes with the Court on 10/23/2020.

CERTIFICATIONS

44. Pursuant to URCP Rule 100, the parties state upon information and belief that there are no other proceedings concerning custody of any of the parties' above-named children filed or pending in Juvenile Court or any other court.

45. Neither of the parties is receiving limited public assistance from the State of Utah on behalf of the parties' minor children. However, the Respondent is receiving public assistance from the State of New York on behalf of the parties' children.

REAL PROPERTY

46. As of the date of separation the parties had no marital real property.

PROPERTY

47. The parties acquired numerous items of personal property during the parties' marriage. The parties have already divided their personal property and shall be awarded the personal property currently in each of their respective possessions. The parties have already divided their personal property and shall be awarded the personal property currently in each of their respective possessions.

RETIREMENT

48. Neither of the parties has accrued retirement.

DEBTS AND OBLIGATIONS

49. The parties incurred debts during the parties' marriage. All marital debts existing at the time of the parties' separation have been paid. Each party shall be responsible for paying any debt incurred by the party after the parties' separation and/or incurred in such party's name and each party shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless from such debts.

50. Neither of the parties shall obtain any new debt or credit in the name of the other party.

ALIMONY

51. Neither party shall be required to pay alimony to the other party.

ATTORNEYS' FEES

52. Each of the parties shall be responsible for his or her own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in this matter.
